

Loren Murchison – Detroit Eastern 1916

At age 15 he won the Detroit schools “decathlon”, competing the next year for Eastern High. Then he moved to Missouri where he developed into a top sprinter. He made three Olympic sprint finals and won gold on the U.S. 4 x 100 in both 1920 and 1924. At age 27 he was struck with meningitis and spent the rest of his life in a wheelchair.
